It's my great pleasure to welcome you to the 24th Festival Accès Asie!

One of many celebrations happening across Canada during Asian Heritage Month, cultural gatherings such as the Festival Accès Asie allow us to highlight the many contributions Canadians of Asian origins have made to our country's culture, history and prosperity.

That's why our government is proud to support this cultural festival, which contributes to Montréal's vitality while allowing Canadians of all backgrounds the chance to discover and appreciate Asian art in all its forms. Throughout the month of May, artists and artisans from various Asian cultural communities will enchant visitors by showcasing their traditions through dance, paintings and culinary arts.

As Minister of Canadian Heritage and Multiculturalism, I would like to thank the organizers, artists and volunteers who helped bring this vibrant celebration to life. Have fun at the festival and Happy Asian Heritage Month!
